REQUIREMENTS FOR ARTICLES IN THE ELECTRONIC COLLECTION "NAUKOVÌ VÌSTÌ DALÌVS'KOGO UNÌVERSITETU"

Article structure:

DOI:

UDC

Author (surname, initials)

Gender name

Abstract in the language of the article (at least 1800 characters with spaces)

Keywords in the language of the article (5 - 7 words)

The text of the article with sections according to the SAC

The text of the article is 10 kg in 1 int., Times New Roman font.

The volume of the main text (without annotation and bibliography) of the article should be not less than 8,000 and not more than 25,000 characters with spaces.

Margins: right, left, top, bottom - 20 mm.

The size of the article file should not exceed 2 Mb

Literature (according to DSTU 7.1: 2006)

The article list of literature must have a duplicate of the Romance alphabet, that is, have a Latin transliteration!

Annotations in 2 languages at the end of the article (except the language of the article)

Keywords in 2 languages at the end of the article

Information about the authors

Formulas must be typed in the formula editor (scanning is not allowed)

Manuscripts of articles to be sent to the journal must be typed in a Microsoft Word text editor (the file must have the extension * .doc or * .rtf).

General requirements for the design and content of articles in the electronic bulletin according to the requirements of the SAC:

- 1. Relevance of the study (disclose the social order);
- 2. Problem statement;
- 3. Theoretical analysis of the study (reveal the degree of study of the problem on the basis of scientific sources in which the study of your problem);
- 4. The purpose of the article (as a scientific study);
- 5. Research objectives;
- 6. Presentation of the main material of the study (meaning the article);
- 7. Conclusions (specific conclusions on the article and prospects for further work);
- 8. Literature (the list of used literature is made out according to the resolution of the Higher Attestation Commission of UKRAINE Bulletin від3 from 2008).

The teaching of the material of the article should be consistent, logically complete, with clear wording that eliminates ambiguity or misunderstanding of information. The language of the text is expressive, concise and in accordance with literary norms.

Formulas are presented in Microsoft Equation 2.0, 3.0 (4.0) format, centered in the middle of the text and numbered in parentheses on the right edge.

Figures are signed and numbered below the figure in the center of the text.

All objects in simple drawings made in Word must be grouped.

Tables are presented as separate objects in Word format with the dimensions given to the compilation page. The main size of table 10. Table headings are placed in the center of the page, table numbering - on the right edge of the page.

The author is obliged to ensure the scientific value of the material, the completeness of the issue, the systematic presentation, the probability of the results, given and their validity, the correctness of citations, references to literary sources.

Authors of publications in the journal do not receive fees.

The responsibility for the use of photographs and drawings in the submitted materials of the articles lies with the author.

The editors are not responsible for the content of the author's materials

